Elder Sonne Heard At Conference

Quarterly Conference of the Taylor Stake held last Sunday was well attended by people from all over the Stake and all meetings were filled with good counsel and advice for those in attendance. Elder Alma Sonne, assistant to the Twelve, represented the General authorities and was a speaker at all of the meetings.

A priesthood meeting was held at 9:15 when reports from some of the Quorums were called for and questions asked regarding the manipulation of the various quorum committees. At 10:30 the first general session of the Conference was held. Elders Victor Larson and A.E. Focke who had been on short term missions reported briefly and Stake Clerk Wm. Anderson presented the General Church and Stake authorities for the vote of the people. Elder Heber F. Allen, Counselor in the Stake Presidency reported on General Conference and bore his testimony.

Elder Sonne spoke and expressed his joy at visiting the Canadian Stakes, something he had looked forward to for a long time. Speaking of the strength of the Church he said that while we were few in numbers, we held the solution to the troubles of the world, and if we lived the teachings of the Church we would be a great and a mighty people and the world would come to Zion seeking for light and divine guidance. We are fighting for the right, and while things may look dark at times, God will always intervene at the critical moment if we remain true to Him. He cited instances in history where the fate of nations had been changed by divine interposition.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ackroyd and Elder Glen Gurney who had been on short term missions and Elder Don Briggs just returned from a two year mission reported briefly. Pres. H. S. Allen spoke briefly in support of the current Victory Loan.

Counselor M. T. King and Pres. T. Geo. Wood spoke and expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to serve in the work of the Church. Pres. Wood referred to General Conference and one or two of the impressions he had received there.

Elder Sonne spoke on the life and mission of the Savior, and mentioned some of the compliments that had been paid Jesus by even non-believers and atheists. He, who while not accepting Him for His divinity, were forced because of the life He led and the example He set, to praise and acclaim Him as the outstanding character of history. He never wrote a sentence about His own life, it was left to be told by a group of humble fishermen.

Sunday evening the time was divided between the Stake Sunday School and the Stake Mutuals. In the Mutual portion the outstanding event was the numbers by Gleaner Girls and the Gleaner Chorus directed by Mrs. Sara Low, and the presentation to twelve Golden Gleaners of the Stake of their merit award. The presentation by a group of fifteen eleven year old boys of the 'Testimony of the Three Witnesses' made a deep impression. Elder Sonne spoke again at this session.

The Stake Choir attended morning and afternoon sessions and rendered a very fine program of anthems which was greatly appreciated by all present. Wm. Stone was in charge.

NEXT OF KIN ASSOCIATION

At a meeting of the parents and relatives, and others interested in the boys and girls in service held last week, the name 'Next of Kin Association' was selected. This name was suggested by C. W. Selman and he was given a prize for having his suggestion accepted. Membership will include families and others interested in the men and women in the service and membership is $1.00 per family.

Paul H. Redd is President, E.L. Spackman first, and Mrs. L. L. Palmer second vice-presidents, Mrs. T. W. Melkum Secretary and W. Piegruss as assistant secretary is the Executive, and directors will be chosen by this Executive. A monthly meeting was decided on, the date to be announced later.

NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hancock were Lethbridge visitors on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. D.H. Ellison of Waterton Park, is visiting here with her sister Mrs. Lee Brewerton and other relatives.

Because of Conference no ward services were held on Sunday except Junior Sunday School in the 2nd Ward for the little folks.

Sunday was a most delightful day and visitors to Conference from the various wards and branches of the Stake had a wonderful day in meeting and visiting with friends and relatives.

Enjoyable Ladies Night at Rotary

The Rotary Ladies Night Monday evening last in the Sugar Bowl was very enjoyable to all present. At about 8:30 supper started, and the 45 or more people did full justice to the fine meal provided by Mrs. Layne. This was followed by a sing song which went from the ridiculous to the sublime and back again in a number of cycles.

The time was then turned over to the programme committee and after the tables were cleared away the crowd thoroughly enjoyed a solo by Tom Roberts. Then G. V. Balderson, of Magrath, who has made movies his hobbies for a number of years took over, and with his project or showed the crowd a number of films of travel pictures all in colors, which were most enjoyable. These included a trip from Billings to Yellowstone Park over the Cook highway and scenes in the park including the geysers, mud springs, the park animals and all, and then one between Yellowstone and home via Kalispell, Mon., the latter part of which is familiar to many. One reel of scenes in Waterton, starting at Cameron Falls and following up the creek and in the hatcheries were interesting and educational. Then we went to Calgary and the Banff-Jasper highway, over to Lake Louise, and then over the Big Bend highway, down to the Okanagan Valley from north to south, across the ferry at Nelson and home through the Crow's Nest pass. It was a very interesting series of films and everyone enjoyed it and gave 'Glad' a big hand for his kindness.

Victory Essays

In co-operation with the Public Relations Committee of the local Victory Loan and Mrs. Shortliffe of the High School staff, an essay contest was carried on the past week at the High School and the essays adjudged the best three, are being published in the Recorder this week and next, and prizes were given the winners.

We congratulate the winners and the losers in this contest for the spirit they manifest and excellence of their endeavors. Here are the first prize essay and one of the two third prize essays:

REASONS WHY RAYMOND SHOULD SUPPORT THE SIXTH VICTORY LOAN

A. M. Kabayama

"Germany is as good as beaten. Her army is completely disorganized. The Luftwaffe is a mere shadow of its former strength. The German people have no will left to fight. The underground movements have almost overthrown the Nazi Yoke."

Everywhere insidious over confidence is spread by well meaning people who do not intentionally sabotage the war effort. The method is very subtle & is extensively used by enemy agents to lull the people of Canada into letting up in their magnificent war effort.

The war is not won. We are far from Victory, though the end is in sight. True, the Germans are being beaten horribly by the Russians, and are retreating everywhere on the Eastern front. True, the Japanese have been halted in their southward drive, and are now being driven back. True, Italy has been knocked out of the war.

But—this is only the beginning of the end, the merest beginning. The Russians have had to fight at dreadful cost for every inch of ground grudgingly yielded by the Germans. On the Italian front the Germans have held back the Allies on both the Cassino and Anzio fronts for several months. In the Pacific the Americans are advancing, island by island, over the dead bodies of stubborn, fanatical Japanese warriors.

To change this trickle of advances to an overwhelming, impregnable avalanche of victory, we must do our share without stint. We must give our all. Our all. It is so little we are asked to give, to do. The Canadian soldier on the Cassino front is daily asked to sacrifice not just his money, pleasure nor movies. He is asked to pay the supreme sacrifice, if need be, and willingly, with a smile he marches into the teeth of danger. That is Canada's Army. Is anything we can do at home too much for them?

In this Victory Loan we are not asked to give our money. We are merely asked to lend it to the government, which has far greater use for it, at a very profitable rate of interest. We are just asked to forego some of the goods, the luxuries, the pleasures which this money might have bought for the present, so that we may enjoy them later when the world is at peace and our boys are home again.

Canadian people are handling more money now than they ever did before. The supply of goods available to civilians is the smallest in many years, hopelessly inadequate. Thus the two primary conditions for a first-class inflation are fulfilled. If the surplus money is not diverted into Victory Bonds, then soon it will become worthless, just slips of paper with numbers printed on it. To prevent such a catastrophe we MUST buy Victory Bonds.

One may well ask, what good will my fifty dollar bond be? Let the big companies buy their large bonds, they can afford it. My share won't do a bit of good. It will entail more secretarial work than the amount which the government will get from it.

But remember that "the journey of a thousand miles is begun with one step." The little fifty dollar bond here, the hundred dollar bond there, here and there all over Canada will add up to an incredibly large amount.

So Raymonds, let's support this Sixth Victory Loan to the full. Let's put our shoulder behind the wheel, and give the final shove which will push the Axis down the canyon of defeat. Let's crush forever the might of Germany's war machine, and bring our boys home again. Let's go over the top.

WHY RAYMOND SHOULD SUPPORT THE SIXTH VICTORY LOAN

Hazel Taylor

"He's willing to give everything. He expects you to lend your dollars. That's not much to ask, is it? Get ready to buy Victory Bonds!"

Johnny turned the dial quickly muttering to himself, until finally the radio blared forth into some hot jive. He whistled contentedly and sprawled into the nearest easy chair.

"Is there going to be another Victory Loan Drive, Dave?" sighed Mrs. Grayson. "Seems like we just had one."

Her husband mumbled some thing behind his magazine and sank lower in the comfortable chair.

Pat sat staring indifferently out of the window. Her eyes widened. "Did you say something about a Victory Loan? Maybe they'll have a dance or something, huh?"

"Lot of good that'll do, jeer ed Johnny. You don't even buy War Savings Stamps!"

"Do you?" was the retort! Johnny shrugged. "Some family! You go to the Victory Rallies, come home all enthused, and promptly forge all about it." He yawned, "Guess I'll go to bed."

David Grayson, partly aroused by the little discussion, looked thoughtfully over at his wife. She had a lot of new clothes lately. Well, he hadn't exactly been going around looking poverty-stricken, either. Another Victory Loan—will the war never end? Perhaps he should buy another—let's see it was about the Second Victory Loan Drive when he had bought his last bond. "Oh well," he thought, "What's the use of worrying about such things anyway—and besides, I haven't anyone in the war."

And while the rain fell softly upon the green lawn outside of the comfortable Grayson home, a vastly different rain was falling upon the slopes of Italy. The whine of the bullets and the shrieking wail of the bombs heard above the roar of guns filled the air with death and destruction. Here they were fighting for the peace and happiness of those at home. Here were the dead and the dying—but Mr. Grayson need not worry since none are his.

They were willing to pay their price for your freedom.

SEEDING CONTINUING

Seeding of grain crops continues, although the ground is very dry. We heard Monday of one farmer who works his land in the forenoon, and then seeds it in the afternoon, so that less moisture will escape while waiting for the drill. Gardens turn up nice, but the soil is dry and will pulverize like sand in the hand.

Irrigation water is in the ditches and water is being applied to alfalfa fields, stubble, and in many cases summerfallow and even beet land before seeding is undertaken. According to reports the soil itself has never been as dry at this time of year as it is now, or if it has been, it has been a long, long while. The weather has been threatening many times, but when it has stormed it has only been blusters and showers. However, we hope that a big rain is soon due. Farmers are planting, some of them in hopes of the rain, and others are waiting, hoping the rain will come before they have to plant and thus reduce their chances of losing their seed.

VICTORY WINDOWS

Up and down the street are a number of Victory windows, boosting the Bond sale. These are attractive, and certainly emphasize the need of full support to the Loan Drive.

In the window of the Mercantile block next the bakery is a window containing a number of placards advertising the Bond drive, the work of the students of our schools. These cards are very expressive and show imagination and ability. Everyone should take time to enjoy these windows and if they need 'oomph' to convert themselves to the buying of bonds, get it from these displays.

COMMITTEE TO AID HOSPITAL BOARD

At a Board of Trade meeting Wednesday night, poorly attended as they usually are (just why?) a lively discussion was had regarding assistance to the Hospital Board in furnishing the wards and rooms of the Hospital. The meeting felt that aid should be given, and that every effort at co-operation with the Board should be made.

A motion was carried that a committee of five be appointed to meet with the Board and determine how much was needed, and then report back to the Board of Trade at a meeting to be held May 17th, also suggesting ways and means to raise the funds. Named to this committee by the Chair were: L.L. Palmer, J. O. Hicken, J. D. Hall, Louis Brandey and S. I. May.

The 1st Ward Elders Quorum held a Temple Excursion last week and considering the season of the year with everyone so busy it was very well supported.

Three local people were escorted to the Justice of the Peace Monday for parking in the bus and by the Post Office in the restricted hours. Careful folks. Don't break the laws and you won't be offended.

You are not making the supreme sacrifice. Lend your money to help bring victory closer! Buy Victory Bonds!

Funeral services over the remains of Henry A. Jones, whose passing was reported last week were held in the 2nd Ward Church Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. with Bishop L.L. Palmer in charge. The hall was filled with friends of deceased and his family, who had gathered to show their respect to his memory and the lovely floral offerings were beautiful and profuse. Pall bearers were the six sons of deceased, Albert, Austin, Alvin, Wilfred, Stanley and Heber. The choir, including members from both ward choirs was directed by Jos. A. McLean with Mrs. Emma Dahl at the organ.

The opening song was "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" and the invocation was offered by Elder Jas. S. Anderson after which the choir sang "What Prize Shall be your Reward".

Bishop Palmer in his opening remarks spoke of the splendid life of deceased his willingness to serve, his fine example to his family, and the things he had sacrificed because of his testimony of the Gospel. He urged the family to follow the example and teachings of their father.

Elder W. C. Stone was the first speaker, and told of his long acquaintance with deceased and his family, and of the record they had all made in Church activities. He told of the pioneering days in Raymond and the part that deceased and his wife had taken in these experiences. Speaking on resurrection and life after death, he explained the L.D.S. belief of the eternity of the family relation and urged the children to follow the footsteps of their parents and prepare to join them in the joys of eternity when life's brief race was run.

Mesdames J.H. Walker and L. D. King sang "Good Morning Up There."

Elder J. W. Evans, former bishop of the Raymond 2nd Ward spoke of his long acquaintance with deceased, his wife and children. He had enjoyed with them many happy experiences during the early days of Raymond, and had always appreciated the willingness of deceased to serve wherever asked and in whatever capacity. He referred to the hope that lies beyond for those who understand the doctrine of the resurrection, and the happiness that deceased and his wife would have already enjoyed in their reunion in the spirit world. Jos. McLean sang "Goin' Home" as a special request, the Choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and the benediction was pronounced by Bishop J. O. Hicken.

A large cortege followed the remains to the cemetery where interment was made, the grave being dedicated by Elder C. E. Alfred. Christensen Bros were in charge.

WE CAN'T STOP PUMPING NOW

At the beginning of the century, two persons were needed to play a pipe-organ. The organist was at the key-board and someone else was at the pump handle. And all the years of pipe-organ playing, all the skill of the musician's fingers came to naught when the man at the pump stop had pumped.

In Europe today thousands of Canadians are playing a different kind of music. They are playing it well with canon and guns. Their performance is a thrill for a listening world, a display of masterful technique developed through years of hard practice. Just as the organist of olden days depended on the youth at the pump, our troops depend on us at home to keep them going.

Victory Loans, successfully conducted during the past three years, have been vital to the retraining of our armed forces. But they are not enough. One hour's pumping of the old organ could not keep the organist play-quite common this in week and early gardeners have radishes, lettuce and other early vegetables above ground.

Have you bought that Victory Bond yet. Don't delay any longer than you have to. We want Raymond over the top right away now.

Good progress is being made on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Eph. Gough on Broadway. The first layer of siding is on and the roof is shingled.

Tom Roberts has a crew busy laying new cement sidewalks from the King Motors corner one block west, and then they are going north and lay a new block past the Public School. This will make a much needed improvement.

The latest reported total in the recent Red Cross Drive was $3,200 on a quota of $1,700. This speaks very well for the people of the district. At that time the complete report had not been made to the Drive Chairman.

Lloyd Hepler who is employed by one of the Oil Companies near Coutts spent the week here and crated his furniture for storage. On Wednesday he returned to his work, and Mrs. Hepler is going to spend a prolonged visit with her parents at Hartleyville.

This Mail has PRIORITY

WHEN a man is wounded in action or seriously ill, he is rushed through field and base hospitals with all possible speed, to the place where most effective treatment can be given. Because of this rapid movement, his mail may not "catch up" for some time, yet, if ever he longed for a letter from home, it is at such a time.

To offset possible delays, a new "Short-Cut" mail service has been put into effect. A Priority Casualty Card is filled in and rushed by Air Mail to his friends or relatives with instructions to add the words "In Hospital" to the unit address they usually use.

Letters mailed from Canada bearing the words "In Hospital" are routed direct to the records office in the United Kingdom or the Central Mediterranean Force, as the case may be. They are given preference in transport, whether sent by Air Mail or regular mail. Thus they will reach the addressee faster than ever before.

It is inevitable that in tracing men who have been moved, or wounded, some delays occur. But you can rest assured everything that can mean speedier deliveries of letters to your men is being well and thoroughly done—and will be done.

When you get a Priority Casualty Card be sure the words "In Hospital" are added to the regular unit address when writing overseas.

It is inexpensive, too! For, Marathon Rustproof Compound is reasonably priced and easy to apply. It can be brushed on or, when diluted with kerosene or painters' naphtha, sprayed with an ordinary insect spray gun.

Outdoor tests have shown that Marathon Rustproof Compound has given "perfect protection against rust" for nearly a year and a half—while grease and oils (commonly used as rust preventives) failed in as little as from 7 to 30 days.

Knowing how costly Rust can be, why wait another day? Get a 25-lb. pail of Marathon Rustproof Compound. It fights rust these 3 ways—(1) Prevents rust formation. (2) Penetrates existing rust and stops further rusting. (3) Loosens rust so that it is removed easily. Yes, don't delay if you would "kill" rust and keep it away!

COMPARE . . . the cost of raising hogs on GRAIN ALONE — against the cost and high profit of raising hogs on a smaller amount of grain, PLUS the proven SHUR-GAIN HOG CONCENTRATE:

It takes 1100 pounds of grain to raise one hog on GRAIN ALONE . . . cost, about $13.75. To this you must add the cost of maintaining the sow, about $3.50 per weaned pig. A total of $17.25.

BUT . . . feeding the SHUR-GAIN WAY — you need only 700 pounds of grain, plus 50 pounds of SHUR-GAIN HOG CONCENTRATE. The total feed cost, including the cost of maintaining the sow is only $14.05.

The difference between feed cost and selling price, when hogs are fed on grain alone, is about $3.75 per hog. BUT THE SHUR-GAIN WAY makes the difference $12.00 per hog — an EXTRA profit of $3.25!
